

Professor Paul COLLIER

Chaire Ganshof van der Meersch 2007

Paul Collier is Professor of Economics and Director of the Centre for the Study of African Economies, Oxford University. He took a five year Public Service leave, 1998-2003, during which he was Director of the Research Development Department of the World Bank. He is also a Professeur invité at CERDI, Université d'Auvergne, and at Paris 1.

Areas of activity: governance in low-income countries, especially the political economy of democracy, economic growth in Africa, economics of civil war, aid, globalisation and poverty

His most important publication is:

Collier, 2007, The Bottom Billion: Why the poorest countries are failing and what can be done about it, Oxford University Press.