

Hilary Term 2023
Classical Archaeology Seminars organised by
Irene Lemos and Athena Tsingarida
Mondays 5pm

Harbours, Maritime Networks, and Infrastructures in ancient Mediterranean from the Late Bronze Age to the Hellenistic period.

Sponsored by: The Classics Faculty; School of Archaeology; Merton College; Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB); Fondation Wiener-Anspach(ULB)

16 January

Dr Linda Hulin (Oxford)

A meeting of requirements: a mariner view of ports and trade in the Late Bronze Age eastern Mediterranean.

23 January

Professor Susan Sherratt (Sheffield)

Pottery as tracers of maritime networks

30 January

Professor Sabine Fournier (Université Lumière Lyon 2)

The ancient harbour of Kition-Bamboula, Cyprus

6 February

Dr Tzveta Manolova (Brussels, ULB)

The invention of the oared galley and its early evolution: origin, implications, and key tipping points

13 February

Daniela Greger (Lausanne & Oxford)

Euboean Trade in the Bigger Picture: Early Iron Age Pottery Exchange through Network Analysis.

20 February

Professor Laura Michetti (Sapienza, Rome)

Pyrgi, Harbour and Maritime Sanctuary of the Etruscan City of Caere

27 February

Drs Chryssa Sofianou (Director of the Lasithi Ephorate of Antiquities) & Tom Brogan (Director of the Institute for Aegean Prehistory and INSTAP East Crete)

Maritime CoastScapes and Small Worlds in East Crete from the Middle Bronze Age to the Hellenistic Period

6 March.

Prof. Jon Albers (Ruhr-University, Bochum)

The city of Selinunte within the system of western Greek ports. New excavations in an ancient harbour zone

The seminars can be attended online

link:

<https://zoom.us/j/95899227597?pwd=dUxydVpTRU1veTZXOWdyZmJBaS9jZz09>